

Meeting began at 19:30.

Officer Reports:

President (Emi Phillips):

- Emi can't talk today, "AAAHBAhhhblahh".
- Res-life survey was sent out, sign up for it to get preferential selection on housing with the RPI Players! Also cheaper! Woo! Doesn't a discount rate sound good? Let's do it! Fill out the form.
- Musical director and choreographer calls are out still, interviews have been sent out.
- EOP producer call has also been sent out, if you want more info please talk to Emi/all the other producers (the Nicks, Ryan, Emily D,...)
- S. Inc sent in post mortem results, they are totally cool.
 - Totally.
- Emily K will be meeting with me on behalf of Alpha Psi to talk about working together.

Business Manager (Hannah De Los Santos):

- Yay business! (the excitement in the room was visible on the bored faces and in the closed eyes of the membership).
- T-Shirts are happening.
- "Pizza fuck!" Pizza is one pricey fox, having them every Friday is expensive. We have money, we just have to figure it out.
- We need to pay Eric and other folks.
- Lots of purchase requests.
- Insurance hasn't been returned yet.

Technical Director (Benjamin Wright):

- Technical dank memes... no technical dipshit.... technical doorbell!
- Not on fire, the playhouse is.
 - Set department tried!
- Doorbell is ringing loudly, no one wants to let people in still.
- Gray Matter has academy hall access.
- The stage of academy hall was blessed with the blood of the technical director, from this sacrifice we will bring forth a beautiful show.
- We need to finalize the key list.
- We built things and didn't know how to take apart the panel saw... so it still lives!

- Mrs. Darcy (no, not that one) from SLOC emailed us, will hopefully be charmed by our TD's answer.
- Intelligent lighting has been vaguely answered by our ever vague lights-knowledgeable alum, Eric Yunitis. He is here hiding behind his laptop.
- Old timer report (the no longer hidden Eric Yunitis): Tim and I repaired the table saw, it is less sad now. Cans and moisture and wet paper towels are bad for the saw. Don't put them there. YAG probably did it. Peace from the Great Grand Technical dad!

Membership Chair (Micaila Dean):

- TIPS training (get the mad monies!) (there is no money involved) will happen on the 27th, a tuesday 4-6:30.
- Apple picking was a lot of fun.
- Put in your votes for hams, blondes, and goofuses.
- Hams and blondes voting performance will close for Gray after their closing performance, and for Oranges at intermission closing night.
- You cannot take players cards off someone's person.
- Talk to me if you need closing night party things!
- We're doing pumpkin painting, I'll be buying tiny pumpkins soon!
- Come to the memcomm meeting 5:30-6:30.

Secretary-Historian / Webmaster (Mason Cooper):

- This week historical fact comes from 1991, which was a very eventful season. That season seems to hold the beginnings of many things, including the script library, the typing of the minutes of a computer, and so on. The minutes revealed we had a summer td (STD), publicity blondes, and more. On September 4th, 1991, however, there is record of Naz (then called by his first name, Kris) going off in the corner to discuss taking over the position of COKE GOD from the then COKE GOD Adric. The rest is history.
- The office, despite our best efforts at cleaning, is still a mess.
- A lot of historical documents have been and continue to be dug up.
- The frames were finally ordered. I want to ordered this season's frames by Drood's opening night.
- We got mail, TANYS is having a general meeting soon.
- Jason is now master assistant on the website.
- The minutes are still not up on the website, but they are all on the drive. That is in progress.

Publicity Director (Heili Springsteen):

- Marquees are up and publicity materials are going out!
- P-Comm meeting this Friday! Come out!
- We're working on mentor-mentee night, stickers for events, and lots of stuff!
- We still haven't heard back from the Sodexo, but we have heard back from the Poly!
- We're doing more Gray matter things, it'll be great!
- Our publicity is now the flaming head!

Producer Reports:

The Love of Three Oranges Producer (Nick Menezes):

- He wasn't here D:!
- Submitted:
- Eric is happy with the cast! Things are going well, we have dates and bonding events scheduled.
- The book has been set up, pages/etc will be constructed.
- Assistants will be running the next prod meeting.
- No orange smell :(

A Gray Matter (Nicholas Robinson):

- "Uhh... we had a tech sunday today and it actually went really and I was soooo happy about it"-- actual words.
- There are a few small adjustments that need to be made, run crew needs more people. More would be great. Just one would be great. More would be great!
- Quotes will be sent in, masters will send in quotes, quotes, quotes, boats!
- Mlcaila and the cast and crew will be bonding soon!
- Ben has secret talk time... no wait Nicholas just forgot!

Business:

November, the month of Fuckery:

- We're going to have to have the general meeting at a weird time because all the Sunday's are busy with tech things and show things and thing things and thanksgiving things.
- Monday, November 2nd at 8pm.

State of the Lobby:

- Things were messy all over, food trash and cans and stuff were left all over.
- You should clean up before you leave!
- We have mice now :(-sec hist shudders-

New Business:

RMA Performing (Heili Springsteen):

- RMA and Sheer Idiocy may be interested in using our space instead of YAG.
- RMA would like to help with the selection of a musical director.
- Also interested in doing EOP.
 - We're doing it!

The Summer House (Chris Gyon?):

- Alpha Psi might want to use our space for a full production in the summer.
